~~Petition~~ ~~Letter~~ No. 315 dated 21st July/04

from Narasimha addressed to H. H. the Maharaja of Mysore.

Devaraih was the parpattegar of the above Chattram and he died in January 1894. The present petitioner is stated to be his son. He addressed a petition dated 5th December 1894 stating that the Amildar appointed him as Cook instead of as Parpattegar and requested that the Parpattegar's place for which he was the hakdar may be conferred on him. He was informed by means of an endorsement No 735 d: 12.12.94 that the post of Chattram Parpattegar was not hereditary and that he did not seem to be fit for the place being very young. He again addressed a petition on 20.12.1903 stating that he had been given endorsements both by the Muzrai Deputy and the District Huzur that there was no vacancy when he applied for the place after attaining majority.

cited an instance in which the parpattegar's place in the ~~Dt. Mysore~~ Maharaja's Chattram at Mysore had been given to the herkdar and prayed that his case also might be favorably considered He was informed (Vide No 2379 d: 10.2.04) that he might represent to the Deputy Commissioner when there was a vacancy. He has again now addressed a petition to H. H. the Maharaja repeating his prayer.

Once again the same Narasimhayya, Kavalgar in the Sri Narasimhaswami temple at Maddur petitioned this Office reiterating his former prayer, viz that he might be made the Parpattegar of the Chattram at Maddur

The Deputy Commissioner of the Mysore District to whom the petition had been referred now reports that the petitioners father Devaiah was originally Parpattegar of the Sri Narasimhaswami temple at Maddur from the year 1861 and was subsequently transferred to the Maddur Chattram as Parpattegar where he continued till his death in 1894; that owing to the minority of his son the present petitioner, one Krishnappa was appointed Parpattegar of the Chattram in the place of the deceased, but when he had become major, as the said post had been done away, the petitioner was made Cook in the Maddur

File No. of 190 | Muzrai Secretariat.

Chattram and subsequently Paricharaka in the Mandya Chattram and last of all made navalgar of the Sri Narasimhaswamy temple at Maddur in 1904.

The Deputy Commissioner also reports that the present Parpattegar of the Maddur Chattram Krishnappa referred to above respected his appointment stating that the vacant post might be conferred on the petitioner. He (D.C) however states that the Assistant Commissioner Mr. K. Sreenivasa Rao is of opinion that at present there is no necessity for a Parpattegar for the Maddur Chattram and that therefore he has issued orders to the Parpattegar of the Maddur Narasimhaswamy temple to look after the Chattram Parpattegars duties in addition to his own, in view to save the Chattram Parpattegars pay* and accumulate funds for the construction of a new Chattram at Maddur.

The Muzrai Secretary visited Maddur

During the last year, and he was of opinion that the Chattram at Maddur did not justify its existence and that the Sivapur Chattram near the Maddur Railway station was rising in importance in proportion owing to the large number of travellers resorting to the institution.

The Deputy Commissioner also reports that prior to the appointment of the petitioner, as Kavalgar of the Sri Narasimhaswami temple, one Biligiri was looking after the duties, but as he absented himself without leave, he was dismissed and the petitioner was appointed. He further states that one Rangamma, a relation of the late Kavalgar petitions that the post of Kavalgar may be conferred on one Ranga minor son of the late Kavalgar and himself made as his gumastah during Ranga's minority

From the Deputy Commissioner's report it is understood that the petitioner was appointed Kavalgar of the Sri Narasimha swami temple only in the year 1901. His name does not therefore appear in the Revised Jasdik Patti of the institution which was framed in 1896. The name of Bilqui however appears in it as Kavalgar and his pay was fixed at Rs 2-1-0 in cash and Rs 1-2-11 in the shape of provisions. This appointment is now held by ~~Narasimhayya~~, the petitioner. As only raw rations ~~are~~ are distributed in the ~~Mad~~ Chattram at Maddur, according to the Revised Jasdik Patti of 1896, there are only 4 servants on the Chattram establishment, viz a Parpattegar on Rs 6/- a Paricharaka on Rs 5/- and two Jhadmakes on Rs 3/- each per mensem Of these, the Parpattegar and one Jhadmali are made to work at Maddur Chattram, and the Paricharak

Muzrai Secretary's remarks:—

The Parpattegarship of the Maddur Chattram was kept-up till very recently on pay Rs 6 per mensem. The incumbent Krishnappa resigned lately and it is stated that he has since died. The Assistant Commissioner and the Deputy Commissioner say that it is unnecessary to continue the appointment, but considering that feeding has been ordered to be revived throughout the State even in the Chattrams where the raw ration system prevails, I am of the humble opinion that the vacant Parpattegar's post in this Chattram be filled up by the nomination of the Pat. Narasimhaiya whose father was Parpattegar for many years, The petitioner who was promised the post on the attainment of his majority has now rendered service in various smaller capacities and appears competent for the post of Parpattegar.

The Kavalgar's appointment in the Sri Narasimhaswami temple now held by Narasimhaiya may be disposed of by the Deputy Commissioner at his discretion.

There is no uniform scale of establishment for the Chattrams where feeding is carried on. In some of the Chattrams the establishment consists of a cook, a Paichuvan and a Jadmali, while in some others it there is a Parpattegar in addition. Among the latter may be named the Chattrams at Srirangapatnam, Nanjangud, Chamarajanagar, Agrahar and so on - The Maddur Chatram has a Parpattegar on its establishment and the question now is about filling it up -

Sir,

In reply to your official memoran-dum No. 1934 of the 30th October 1905 forwarding for report petition No. 1864 dated 21st October 1905 (herewith returned) received from Nara-simha, Kavalgar in ~~the~~ Sri Nara-simhaswamy, temple at Maddur Mandya Taluk, praying that he may be appointed as Parpathegar of the Chatteram at Maddur, I have the honor to state as follows:

2. The Mandya Taluk Amildar's report No. 43/866 dated 19th December 1904 (Vide Pharisat No. 23) shows that the petition-er's father Devariah was the Par-pathegar of the Sri Narasimhaswamy temple at Maddur in the said Taluk and was subse-quently from Chattram as Parpathegar where he continued to be so till the year 1894 when he died. owing to the minority of the petitioner, one Krish-nappa was appointed as Parpathe-gar of the said Chattram, the peti-tioner being appointed there as a Cook. At the revision of the scale of the Maddur Chattram in the year 1896, the Cook's post was abolished and the petitioner had to be trans-ferred to the Mandya Chattram as Paricharak which post was also abolished in the year 1897 when the establishment of the Mandya Chattram was revised. on the petitioner's re-presentation he was appointed as Kavalgar in the Sri Narasimha swami temple at Maddur in the year 1901.

3. Prior to the appointment of the petitioner as Kavalgar of the said temple, one Biligiri was so employed and his services were dispensed with on account of his absence without leave.

4. The petitioner, however, has since been praying that he may be ap-pointed as Parpathegar of the Govern-ment Anna Chattram at Maddur in place of his deceased father.

5. In reply to his petition Regd No. 557 dated 1st August 1904 to

His

His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore the Government in their endorse-ment No. 2032 dated 18th July 1905 informed Narasimhia that the Parpathegar's appointment is not a hereditary one and it was not then vacant, that the petitioner held the place of watch-er in the Sri Narasimhaswamy temple at Maddur and as nothing more could be done for him his petitions were rejected.

6. Parpathegar Krishnappa has since resigned his post stating that when he was appointed as Parpathegar in place of his pre-decessor Devaria, his (Devaria's) sons were young adding that Government may now be pleas-ed to appoint the petitioner (Narasimhia) for the vacant post (Vide Krishnappa's deposi-tion dated 22.7.1905, Pharish No 25).

7. It is for this Parpathegar's post that the petitioner has been pray-ing for.

8. Mr. K. Srinivasa Rao, assistant Communications, French Rocks di-vision, states that at present a separate Parpathegar for the Government

Government Anna chattram at Maddur being unnecessary, he has issued orders to the Taluk directing that the Parpathegar of the Sri Narasimhaswamy temple should temporarily attend to both works in view to save the pay of the Parpathegar of the Chattram for the accumulation of funds to be made available for Constructing a new Chattram at Maddur (Vide Yadies No. 87/89 dated 5.7.1905 and No. 501/298 dated 5.10.05)

9. Petition Regd. No: 229 dated 13.11.05 received in this office from Rangamma also accompanies for favour of orders. In this it is stated that the Kavalgar's post in the Sri Narasimhaswami temple at Maddur, is hereditary and prayed that, in case the present Kavalgar Narasimhia is appointed as Parpathegar of the Maddur Chattram, his nephew Ranga (son of the late Kavalgar Biligiri) may be provided with the Kavalgar's post, Rangamma being appointed as the Minor's Gumastha.

10. The file of vernacular records bearing on the subject and ending with the French Rocks Division Assistant Commissioner's Yadi No. 501/298 dated 5-10-1905 accompanies for reference.

Petition Regd. No. 1864, dated 21st October 1905, received from Narasimhayya, Kavalgar in the Sri Narasimha swami temple at Maddur, praying that he may be appointed to the Vacant Parpattegarship of the Chattram at Maddur.

Correspondence ending with letter No. 291, dated 28th November 1905, from the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, reporting on the above.

Govt. Pro: No. 3957-64, dated 17th March 1906, directing the revival of the system of dispensing cooked instead raw rations in all the Govt Chattrams in the State.

Order thereon No. H 1050/22.3.08.

Receive file.

From the Deputy Commissioner's letter read above and enclosures submitted therewith, it is observed that one Devaraiah was the Parpatheger since 1861, and he continued as such, till his death in 1894. He has left behind him a son named Narasimhayya, the petitioner. As the latter was only a minor at that time, the post of Parpatheger in the Maddur Chattram was promised by the local officers to him prior to his attaining the age of majority, but he was in the meanwhile made to work as cook in the Maddur Chattram, and subsequently as Paricharak in the Mandya Chattram and lastly as Kavalgar in the Sri Narasimhaswami temple at Mandya in 1904, in which post the petitioner continues.

2. The Taadik Patti of the Chattram at Maddur which was revised in 1896, provides for the appointment of a Parpattegar for the Instn. on pay Rs 6/- per mensem. Till recently, one Krishnappa was the Parpattegar, but he is reported to have resigned the Assistant Commr. and the Deputy Commissioner are not in favor of filling up the vacancy Considering

however, that feeding has under orders conveyed in the Govt Pro of the 17th March 1906, read above, been ~~ordered~~ to be revived

in all the Govt Annachathrams in the State, the Govt deem it essential to retain the ~~appointment~~ postof Parpattegar on Rs 6/- per for the Chathram, and they are
